

Honors College Newsletter

September 15, 2017

Upcoming Honors College Activities:

Note: Honors Students are required to participate in two activities per semester, and one leadership activity per year to maintain good standing in the Honors College.

Honors College Symposium Brunch:

On Saturday September 23rd, 2017 from 9:00-10:00 a.m. Clay Early childhood Center 215/216. Please look for emails from our Honors College work-study student (Jayla Perry) in the coming week. Sophomore and Junior students will be asked to share a career-building experience they have had in the past year. Any family members participating in Parent Weekend are welcome, we will need a final count by noon on Wednesday September 20th to set the catering.

Gold-Press:

Thursday Evenings: The Goldpress student news site group meets on Thursdays with Ms. Brianna Harrell. Please reach out to her to get involved (harrellb@hssu.edu). The GOLDPRESS, a student news site is set to go live in Fall 2017. Organizing and contributing to the news site are Honors College activities, and there are leadership roles for students who wish to be involved.

Honda Allstars:

The Honda Allstars (like quizbowl) group will be active again this year. There are travel opportunities associated with this group. If you are interested please contact Ms. Eileen (hondaallstar@hssu.edu)

Additional Honors College Events:

Monday Lunch Meetings In The Bosley Cafeteria Conference Room:

This week is informal, the next business meeting will be Monday October 2nd.

Wednesday Drop In Meeting 2 -4 Pm In Hga 316/317:

This is a great time to work on collaborative projects, and talk about honors college activities and career building experiences.

Study Abroad Opportunities:

If you missed the informational sessions on Study Abroad Opportunities on Wednesday September 13th, please connect with the Director for Retention and International Programs, Ms. Sabrina Brown (brownsab@hssu.edu)

Sincerely,

Jana Marcette
